Morning to my Favorite SLO's,

Following is a note from our In N Out District Manager. Just keeping everyone in the loop.

Miki

Hi Miki

Not to bug but I received this e-mail from the store.... Just and FYI

Good morning here is a picture from this morning at 11:15am. I just wanted to share to let you know the issue is back. Over the weekend I really noticed that it's really bad in the mornings and once the late afternoon hits it starts to slow down with all the taxis and limos. If you have any questions please feel free to let me know.

Thank you
